There are doubtless many pieces here that little prices. Some jars that have overstayed their time a bit, -no goods are permitted to linger here, -are remarked thus:

Some Tokonabi, with plain raised dragon at $1.20; were $1.76.
Some with gold, slightly amaller than above kind, at $1.15, instead of $1.65.
Bine and white jars, also small, were $1.50, now $1.15.

This candy

Chocolate Covered Nougat, has been deservedly 20c. lb. popular with our patrons. It's a quality rarely if ever equalled at 30c. a pound-our regular price for it. A large quantity o'clock this afternoon, and continues has just arrived that, during the next six days, will be sold at only 20c. lb.

This has been a Again subject prolific of The Shoes good news of late, but good news never gets tiresome. The Fifth Floor Shoe Store comes to the front again with two excellent Shoes for Men, at $2.25

There are only 720 pairs, but they are $3 and $3.50 sorts. Tan Russia calf laced shoes, with oaktanned soles, welted and stitched. Made for our own lines of $3 and $3.50 shoes, but refused a place there because of slight blemishes in the finish.

Women's Oxfords, at $1.50 Made of tan and black kidskin. None in the lot are worth less than $2 a pair on the usual standard of shoe prices, and some of them are regular and honest $3 and $4 sorts.

In the Main Floor Shoe Store are these other women's shoes, which, although in regular stock and offered at our regular prices, are values sufficiently unusual to be worthy of a place in the Fifth Floor Store. Regular stock, full lines: At $3-Black and dark tan kidekin; welted soless, flexible and soft; new straight last with full took and straight tip.

At $2-Nack kidskin, laced and buttoned; welted soles; patent leather and kid tips; military heels.

Printed Pillow These are for sofa pillows, Slips, 25c. with especial reference to piazza use, but pretty enough and effective enough for use anywhere.

The designs are suggestive of Oriental workmanship, the printing is well done, there is a large assortment of patterns. You will think 25c. very cheap for these when you see them. Tenth street The profes-Of Interest to Photographers plodding amasional and the teur will both be interested in a demonstration of the merits of a platinum paper that has points about it worth understanding.

The paper is Bradley's Platinum, and the demonstration begins at 2 during all the store-hours of Saturday.

It occurs in the Photographic Supplies Store, in the basement.
